

HIGHLIGHTS

JONATHAN WISDOM

Over the next few months I'll be sharing some of my favorite resources to spur on growth as worshippers of the living God. Scripture presents worship as an all-of-life orientation (1 Cor. 10:31), a commitment of family rhythms (Deut. 6:4-9), and a gathering of the church community (Ps. 100).

In each of these spheres we are invited and enabled to worship through the new and living way that Jesus opened up through his sacrifice (Heb. 10:19-20). Cleansed by his blood, we now offer up a sacrifice not of blood, but of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that acknowledge his name (Heb. 13:15).

May praise flow from our hearts, be evident in our lives, and resound from our lips!

BOOK

Family Worship

Donald Whitney

This book offers a biblical case for family worship in the home and practical tips on how to do it! My biggest takeaway is the simple rhythm of “Read, Pray, Sing” as the outline for an intentional time of family worship.

THE HYMNS OF MATT BOSWELL AND MATT PAPA VOL. 3

Papa and Boswell deliver yet again with singable, biblical, and compelling hymns for the church. We recently introduced the first two tracks from this album, “The Lord Almighty Reigns” and “All My Boast is in Jesus.”

SINGING TIP

Smiling while singing can help brighten your tone of voice, lift your pitch on key, and prompt your body to engage in worship with energy. Try it!
